Yes, it looks like Everyone, with All the files etc.

Good we had a backup plan, and next will be a backup to our existing plan. 😎

It looks like Discord is banning people in TD's discord channel.

I'm riding the struggle bus and did not click advanced. Do I need to make a new account now? I feel like my parents..

Yes lol. I did get it figured out though, just had to close the browser out and log back in. Then I could click advanced and browse for the room.

No need to create a new account.

Go back to the beginning - <https://app.element.io/#/register> - and click on the Far Right box FIRST to access the 'advanced server'.

Then type in <https://matrix.donaldsarmy.us>

And then enter username and new password to setup a new account.

Ok I got this far, but once I logged in I don't see anything for the group. I just see people and rooms on the left. But nothing in either.

Try starting from the beginning then, something's not right.

Try a new (different) browser, and enter <https://app.element.io/#/register> and you should see a screen like the above.

Click on the far right one - Advanced / Other and then enter the server name <https://matrix.donaldsarmy.us/>

And then you should see fields to enter username / PW. LMK how it goes.

It keeps putting a red box around the username as I try to sign up...doesn't matter what username I choose, any reason why?

Edit: never mind got it

How do we add this server if we already created an account? Just get NGINX page atm.

They will just ban it again unless you want to make a new discord account every 12 to 24 hours or less.
